"It is a time to renew our adoration of the one Lord, Jesus Christ, in the Eucharist. Jesus has loved us so much that every day, all day, he makes himself available in his Real Presence, under the appearance of bread and wine. Can you love anyone more totally than to give yourself completely to the beloved? Only God can do that, and we are his beloved."

(Bishop Thomas V. Daily, Bishop Emeritus of the Brooklyn Diocese)

PARISH EVENTS/NEWSRESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

The Lord is Risen, Alleluia!

On this day of days, on this feast of feasts, we rejoice in the victory of life! This victory is not just a hope; it is a fact. God, in Christ, has destroyed the power of death! In all its forms -- including abortion -- death can never have the final word!

This is why we are pro-life, and the victory of this day is the starting point and foundation of the pro-life movement. The gift of life, placed in our hands today, is what we proclaim, celebrate, and serve. We announce and apply this victory to every segment of our society. We say to our culture, in effect, Hurry up! God has accomplished His work, and we must run to share in its fruit! God's design for life is unfolding in a definitive way, and this is our chance to catch hold of it and participate in it!"

To all of you who defend life, I wish a Happy Easter with a special joy, knowing that I speak to those who understand Easter most profoundly and live it most intensely. Never doubt the victory of life, and always find in the resurrection your strength to continue defending this greatest of all gifts!

*Easter
Sunday*

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL MINUTE

Today as we celebrate the feast of Easter we find the challenge of also seeing and believing the resurrection that comes through our own lives of self-sacrifice which brings new life to others.

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will show the love of the Risen Christ by bringing your love to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

STEWARDSHIP NOTE

"Think of what is above, not of what is on earth." (COLOSSIANS 3:2) On this day we thank God for His Son, Jesus, who died and rose for us. We celebrate and sing "Alleluia." Let's try to keep the joy of this Easter season in our hearts throughout the year! Pray daily and listen for how He is calling each of us to joyfully use our gifts to fulfill His salvation plan.

DAUGHTERS OF ISABELLA

Bernadette circle 709's meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 3rd at 6 p.m. at the parish hall. Included in the meeting is a speaker from Problem Pregnancy who will then open and accept the baby items. The committee for this event include Linda Paquette and Louise Ravenelle. Members are requested to bring their "wrapped" baby items. Thank you all for supporting this important organization.

PARTNERS IN CHARITY

Last weekend was the In-Pew Commitment Weekend for the 2018 Partners in Charity Appeal. Thank you to those who pledged their support and a special thank you to those who may have contributed for the first time. We need the support of all parishioners here at Sacred Heart if we are to be successful in reaching our goal of $40,000. If you have not yet completed your gift, pledge envelopes are available in the pews this weekend and for the next few weeks. Please complete the pledge envelope as indicated by choosing any one of the options available and place the completed envelope along with your donation in the collection basket during today's second collection. Envelopes may also be returned to the rectory at any time and on-line giving is available at www.partners-charity.net. Please make checks payable to Sacred Heart Parish indicating Partners in Charity in the memo line.

DIVINE MERCY MOMENT

Divine Mercy Sunday, April 8
A Day of Extraordinary Grace

Our Lord's words to Saint Faustina about Divine Mercy Sunday: The soul that will go to confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sin and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. (Diary 699).

"Ordinarily, only the sacrament of Baptism effects in the soul the complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. But on Mercy Sunday, reception of Holy Communion worthily and with trust in God's Mercy pours out upon the soul a complete renewal of baptismal grace" - Rev. Ignacy Rozycki, former member of the Holy See's Theological Commission.

How To Receive The Graces Of The Feast Of Mercy

Make a good and sincere confession during Lent or before Divine Mercy Sunday

Worthily receive Holy Communion on the Feast Day (or Saturday vigil)

Venerate the image of The Divine Mercy

Trust in God's Mercy

Jesus told St. Faustina: I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender Mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy. (699) The more a soul trusts, the more it will receive. (1578)

Turn to the Lord with trust for all of your needs, spiritual as well as temporal. Ask for much and join the hundreds of thousands that have received hope, healing and answers to many prayers on this special day. Rejoice in the Resurrection! Rejoice in God's Mercy!

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is prayed every Sunday after the 6:00 pm Mass. Come and join us in this powerful prayer after the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Easter 2018

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As the grieving women walked to the tomb in the pre-dawn darkness of Easter Sunday, their companion was not only grief but worry. How would they remove the stone that blocked the tomb so they could anoint Jesus' body?

When they arrived at the tomb the women found the stone removed. To their amazement, they also found much more—an angel and the announcement that Jesus had been raised from the dead! Overjoyed, the women ran to announce the good news to the disciples.

That evening, two of the disciples were leaving Jerusalem on the road to Emmaus. Grief and disappointment hung over them as they discussed the events of the last three days. Just as worry about the stone distracted the women from recalling Jesus' promise, the events of Good Friday, shattering their hopes, prevented the disciples from believing the women's report.

Many times worries and disappointment over the immediate events of life cause us distraction. When that happens, do not forget Christ's promises. Do not forget history's greatest event, Christ's resurrection.

The women's worry about the stone proved to be a trifle. God would move the stone. The expectations of the disciples on the road to Emmaus were inconsequential when compared to God's plan fulfilled in Jesus. When the angel told the women that Christ's promise was fulfilled, they were overjoyed. When Jesus enlightened the disciples about the prophecies of Scripture, their hearts burned. The women's worry and the disciples' disappointments were utterly dispelled by the joy of the Resurrection.

May we live in the light of Easter—full of hope and anticipation. May we never let our worries or disappointments distract us from the realization that God's love provides us with the means to overcome every fear and to live in the confidence that God's promises will exceed our most fervent hopes.

With every prayerful best wish for a joyous Easter, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,
